

8th Grade to 9th Grade

Transitioning from middle school
to high school

WHOA!

Becoming a Freshman in high school is no joke! While some things remain the same, many things are different.

STUDY!
HARD!

What is the end goal
of high school?
Earning your diploma!

So, how do we get there?

Let's talk about CREDITS

What is a credit? How are they earned? Why are they needed?

We'll find out more on the next slide!

COURSE CREDITS

- What is a credit?
 - A credit is what you earn when you pass a class
 - If you do not pass, you will not receive a credit
- How do I earn credits?
 - A credit is earned at the end of each semester when you earn a passing grade in your class

COURSE CREDITS

- Why do I need credits?
 - Credits tell us that you have passed a class
 - The more classes you pass, the more credits you earn. The more credits you earn, the closer you get to earning your diploma
- What is a diploma?
 - Also known as your high school degree
 - It is the certificate that states you have met all academic requirements set by your high school in order to graduate

COURSE CREDITS

- How many credits do I need to graduate?
 - 46
- What if I fail a class and don't earn my credit?
 - There are options to get you back on track
 - You will likely have to repeat the failed course

THREE COMMON CHALLENGES FRESHMEN FACE

WORKLOAD

High school students have up to SEVEN classes in a day! That could mean seven items of homework to complete in one day.

COURSE DIFFICULTY

Classes in high school are much more challenging than in middle school. They are designed that way! Take them seriously by completing all homework, studying for tests, and asking your teacher questions.

RESPONSIBILITY

High school students are given more independence, but with that independence comes more responsibility. It is up to you to remember assignments, ask for help, and get your work done. No one will do these things for you!

HOW CAN I COMBAT THESE CHALLENGES?

STUDY HALL

Take a study hall! They add an extra cushion for more time to complete assignments.

LEARNING CENTER (LC)

The Learning Center is open to all NC students. There are tutors in the LC to help you with your classes.

PLANNERS

Planners help you remember assignments, test dates, appointments, and more!

OPPORTUNITIES

Does high school sound boring? Like too much work? Too difficult? Don't worry! NC has many opportunities to get involved with something outside of academics.

MERCURY

Mercury is the closest planet to the Sun and the smallest one in the Solar System—it's only a bit larger than our Moon. The planet's name has nothing to do with the liquid metal, since it was named after the Roman messenger god, Mercury.

VENUS

Venus has a beautiful name and is the second planet from the Sun. It's terribly hot—even hotter than Mercury—and its atmosphere is extremely poisonous. It's the second-brightest natural object in the night sky after the Moon.
